

Veterans of the Civil War,

(12 April 1861 to 26 May 1865)

Who Were Pioneers in

Wasatch County:

(Note: Mention should immediately be made, that there are seven men, who were U.S. Troops of the "Johnston's Army," who are buried by a small spring, south of the top of "Grassy Summit,"now called "Soldier Summit," ...so, more recently named, to memorialize these seven men, who, apparently were on their way east; from Fort Crittenden, near Fairfield Utah; to defend the North against the South, in 1861, at the beginning of the Civil War. It seems to the writer, they should be listed, because, they were frozen to death on that summit, in line of duty, making their way to respond to a call by Pres. Abraham Lincoln to defend our nation...then embroiled in the only civil war this nation has ever suffered.)

Those who actually settled in Timpanogos Valley, who were in that Civil War....from both sides of that struggle, are listed herewith:

William (Billy) Bogan
John Brown
Joseph Barlow Forbes
John Robert Goodwin
Eli Gordon
James Jackson Howe
James Jackson
Francis Johnston
Patrick Henry McGuire
George McMurray (later called George Murray)
John Matthews
John Penfold
Nathan Chatmond Springer
John Monroe Wheeler
John Wright

References: Most of the accounts of these men are found in the books:

"How Beautiful Upon the Mountains," and "Under Wasatch Skies."

The Wasatch Wave has published these men on 25 May 1967 and 1st June 1967, also.

Please call 654-1645 after 7pm and help add to this list or make corrections.
